

Celtic Media Festival

For the past 40 years, CMF has been bringing together those who cherish the languages and cultures of the Celtic countries as portrayed on screen and broadcast.

The Celtic Media Festival is an annual 3 day event that promotes the languages and cultures of the Celtic Nations and Regions in media. It combines a major conference of seminars and master classes with presentation of coveted prizes in an international competition across all the main content genres in TV, radio, film and digital media.

HOW TO ENTER

Enter at www.celticmediafestival.co.uk

What is eligible to enter?

Entries from the Celtic countries and regions* are accepted on any subject. Entries from outside the Celtic countries are accepted where the subject matter relates to aspects of life and culture, past, present or future of a Celtic country.

The festival competition is open to original productions broadcast on traditional channels or online platforms, or publicly screened to an audience of over 50 between 1st November 2017 and 31st October 2018.

Radio/podcast entries must have been broadcast or made available online between 1st November 2017 and 31st October 2018.

Productions previously entered for competition at the CMF, in any form, will not be accepted.

Why enter?

CATEGORIES

DOCUMENTARY / FACTUAL:

1. FACTUAL SERIES: More than one factual programme linked through a unified approach, narrative or the thematic development of a subject matter. Only one episode of a series may be entered. The 30 sec clip for this category must be a series promo. Entrants must include series and episode number in the synopsis.
2. FACTUAL ENTERTAINMENT: Entries invited from lifestyle, magazine/discussion and formatted documentary - reality. Stand-alone single programmes or one episode from a series may be entered.
3. SINGLE DOCUMENTARY: For one-off documentaries. Entries should offer a real insight to the world and the situation that they explore as well as demonstrating an appropriate style and approach, whether observational or scripted.
4. SPORTS DOCUMENTARY: Programmes that capture or celebrate the personalities of sport - of the sport itself or of sporting individuals involved at whatever level. Eligible programmes will place emphasis on the passion and spirit of sport and not on event coverage. Programmes based on archive footage will be eligible. Programmes should be based on sports associated with Celtic nations and reflect this culture and heritage.
5. HISTORY: For documentaries that focus on a particular historical event/person in history. Drama-Docs can also be included in this category.
6. ARTS: This category is for programmes and film that celebrate and examine the arts. (Recordings of performances are not eligible)
7. CURRENT AFFAIRS: Entries should demonstrate journalistic integrity and subject matter should be presented in an investigative and/or immediate manner.

DRAMA:

8. SHORT DRAMA (up to 30 mins): Script and performance will be considered in addition to directorial skill and production values.
9. SINGLE DRAMA (over 30 mins): One-off drama made for television or online or feature films made for theatrical release are accepted. Script and performance will be considered in addition to directorial skill and production values.
10. DRAMA SERIES: An episode from a serial, soap or series should be accompanied by a brief context in addition to programme's synopsis. The episode in competition will reflect both story and character development. The 30 sec clip for this category must be a series promo. Entrants must include series and episode number in the synopsis.

FURTHER SCREEN CATEGORY:

11. ANIMATION: The category is open to entries from all areas of animation.
12. CHILDREN'S PROGRAMME: This category invites entries from a wide range of programming and films for all children of school-going age, fiction and non-fiction. Entries should demonstrate success in communicating with the specific target audience. The entrant should specify the particular age of the audience the programme is aimed at on the entry form.
13. ENTERTAINMENT: Entries to this category may include variety, music, quiz shows, panel shows etc.

14. COMEDY: Entries to this category may include situation comedy, sketch shows and other scripted comedy.
15. SHORT FORM: Productions of all genres, up to and including 15 minutes in duration. Productions must have been published on an online platform, including but not limited to Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, YouTube, Vimeo, IGTV, LinkedIn, Twitch, Pinterest, all Social Apps & Web Pages. Online channels are also included, eg RTÉ Player, iPlayer etc. Productions must have been published on these online channels before any traditional broadcast channels.

RADIO:

16. RADIO STATION OF THE YEAR: Entries will be compilations that celebrate a station's successes and highlights in 2016. Entries must not exceed 1 hour and must be unedited examples of output, to include at least 5 examples of the best of the year. A short supporting statement must include: the station's aims, the highlights of 2016, a weekly schedule with programme details and additional information thought to be relevant to the competition and not already included. The Festival is seeking to award excellence; a station's accord with its audience, its energy, diversity and the continuing quality of production.
17. RADIO DOCUMENTARY: Entries should demonstrate creative use of the medium in story-telling, analysis of subject matter and production values. Minimum speech content of 70% is required (where the documentary is a music documentary, speech content of no less than 50% is required).
18. RADIO MUSIC PROGRAMME (LIVE): Entries should be programmes that are specifically dedicated to a particular genre of music. Any genre of music is accepted. This is a category for programmes that are part of the regular schedule but have a specialist music remit. Consideration given to the relevance of the music selection and the presenter's input. This category does not include documentaries on music.
19. RADIO SPORTS: This category celebrates any programme whose editorial content is specifically dedicated to coverage and or discussion of sporting events and/or issues.
20. RADIO COMEDY: Entries will be considered from all forms of Radio Comedy; sketch shows, panel shows, sitcoms etc. Recordings of stand-up shows are not eligible.
21. RADIO MAGAZINE SHOW: Entries will be considered from all types of magazine show including but not limited to morning and drivetime programme. Includes Phone-ins.
22. RADIO PRESENTER OF THE YEAR: This category celebrates Celtic talent on radio. Entries are expected from both factual and entertainment genres and require demonstration of skill in two ways. Entrants should enter a compilation, not exceeding 1hr in duration, containing at least 5 examples of the individual's best work throughout the year and representing work during the year that best demonstrates broadcast skills including innovation and creativity, conveying information and excellent production values.
23. SPIRIT OF THE FESTIVAL: The spirit of the festival golden torc is awarded to a nominated programme across all screen categories that embodies the spirit and ethos of Celtic Media Festival. The winning production as chosen by the International Jury will be wholly or substantially in a Celtic language.
